

Earl Switzer Memorial Golf Tournament

Lake Valley Golf & Country Club is an 18 hole championship golf course located near Camdenton, Missouri in the beautiful Lake of the Ozarks region. Designed in 1967 by Floyd Farley the golf course offers a unique combination of six par threes, six par fours, and six par fives with a cumulative par of 36-36-72. The gently rolling terrain features player friendly fairways and quick, undulating greens making this a course that is enjoyable for the average player yet challenging for the skilled golfer.

This is the location for the 2010 Earl Switzer Memorial Golf Tournament. Game time begins Wednesday, September 29 with a shotgun start at 9:00 am. Registration begins at 8:15 am. Spouses are encouraged to join the four person scramble tournament.

The registration fee of $125 ($80 for conference registrants) covers green fees, cart rental, box lunch, and the Wednesday night reception and golf awards presentation. (The registration fee of $125 does NOT include the breakfast buffet Thursday morning which is an additional $25.)

Preregistration is required by September 22. Teams will consist of 2 municipal members and 2 associate members. Teams will be posted at the hotel Tuesday evening as well as at the club house on Wednesday morning.
